

INTERCULTURAL WOMEN'S LEADERSHIP PROGRAM

DESIGNED FOR WOMEN WHO DARE TO BE THE ARCHITETS OF GLOBAL PEACE

It always seems impossible until it's done – Nelson Mandela

WHY THIS PROGRAM

- Our world needs women with the courage to act and the passion to re-write the future.

Who can build bridges where walls are being built. Who can take action and speak where voices are being silenced. Women who dare to lead across cultural boundaries to co-create sustainable global peace. A planet where war, violence, division, poverty and inequality belong to the past.

- This program is not a traditional leadership training

We share the solutions to solve the world's most complex problems. This transformative 24-month journey is designed for female leaders who refuse to accept the current status quo. Together, we move from intention to manifestation. From understanding diversity to orchestrating real and actionable global impact. Because we see the solution, we make the impossible possible.

- A Lifelong Global Sisterhood

Access an elite, global network of female changemakers who support each other for life. Female leaders who unlocked their potential and use it to access awareness at all levels of intelligence: mental, emotional, spiritual, social, physical and global.

- Global Legacy & Scaling Impact

From project management to Global Peace Awareness. Based on securing funding, building international alliances and securing our permanent legacy as the architects of peace.

- Activating the Courage to Move

By share the blueprint (direction) of Global Peace, activate capacity building and self-healing abilities we are organizing Global Impact.

Pauline Sibbel is the driving force behind the Global Peace Building Project

After 30 years of self-employment, she decided to use her experience and expertise to accelerate the realization of world peace. She does this using a magical strategy that gives everyone energy, inspiration, and wings. Her holistic and multidimensional strategy proves itself, transcends all existing models and methodologies, and connects science, politics, business, philosophy, and psychology. This 100% approach is fully anchored in universal values, laws, and energy frequencies, based on the fundamental principles of applied metaphysics and quantum psychology. With this pattern-breaking strategy, we penetrate to the core of unity, simplicity, and essence—essential for the realization of global peace.

Pauline is the designer of the 24-month Global Peace Building Program

In this program, blending Personal Excellence, Excellent Governance, and Business Elegance, Pauline trains Young Heroes and their mentors (diplomats, political leaders, world leaders, and presidents) in the magical and transforming Global Peace Building Skills. These skills are essential for transcending political, cultural, and religious divisions, solving personal challenges, and addressing complex geopolitical challenges on the side of the cause—all based on flow, serendipity, synchronicity, and win-win outcomes for everyone.

Recipe for World Peace, a confronting eye-opener!

Her long-awaited book will soon be published: "Recipe for World Peace". First in Dutch, followed by English, Italian, Spanish, and French. In this book, she shares her fascinating metavision strategy through 10 eye-openers. You will discover how we can turn wishes into reality and realize permanent peace.
