Frequently Asked Questions (FAQ)

Do I need prior experience as a trainer or coach?

Yes. This program is an advanced track designed for experienced trainers, coaches and project leaders who already have a foundation in facilitation and want to scale their impact globally.

What exactly is the Global Peace Building Program?

It is a transformative training program based on 30 years of experience in consciousness expansion and visionary leadership. It bridges the gap between world leaders and the next generation (Young Heroes) to build lasting world peace.

Will I be certified to use the materials?

Absolutely. Upon successful completion, you will become a certified facilitator. You will gain full access to the "Recipe for World Peace" toolkit, curriculum and branding to roll out the program in your own market.

What is the format of the program?

The program uses a blended learning format, combining interactive online modules with deep-dive masterclasses. Optional: It also includes an exclusive live retreat in the countryside of southern Italy.

How do I know if this program is the right fit for me?

If you are a visionary leader driven by values, and you feel called to co-create a worldwide movement for peace while empowering the next generation, this program is made for you.
